Praise for KITES information service

KITES, the information service across East Sussex for families of children and young people aged 0-20, has achieved national recognition from the Department for Children, Schools and Families (DSCF).

They were praised for their work with parent information contact staff in schools to ensure that all families can get access to available services.

KITES offers advice and help on anything from how to find a local breakfast club to living with teenagers. To get in touch with them, call 01323 463850, or visit www.childcarelink.gov.uk/eastsussex.
